JANUARY 2018

ISSMA 2018

On January 27th, choir students, under the direction of Mrs. Davisson, will travel to KVHS to demonstrate their musical talents at ISSMA, a musical competition. Soloists, groups, and barbershop quartets will compete. The men's barbershop team consists of Parker Jordan, Adam Armstrong, Ethan Riegle, and Roman Ville-gas. The girl's barbershop features Alexis Brouwer, Sydney Bement, Kelsey Gilbert, and Allie Stoker. A group from treble choir will sing, "Frobisher Bay." Soloists include Abby Chappell, Caity Webb, Catherine Sadler, and many other talented individuals. Best of luck to these dedicated students at their upcoming competition; we hope they bring home high placings!

MR. BOMBER 2018: KEVIN BRACHT

The annual Mr. Bomber week, sponsored by the student council, was kicked off with the famous pajama day dress up theme for its first spirit day. Throughout the rest of the week, students and staff sported their favorite hats, twinned with their friends, and dressed up for a beach vacation. Candidates Isaac Ahler, Kevin Bracht, JT Feagans, Parker Jordan, and Ben Korniak enjoyed their special week with their escorts and were treated to a meal provided by student council before the ceremony. On the evening of the crowning, Kevin Bracht concealed his nervous jitters before he was named 2018's Mr. Bomber. The event took place during halftime of the varsity boys basketball game against Kouts on Saturday, January 13. The award and crown were presented by last year's recipient, Trenton McAdow and Homecoming Queen Sarah Walters. Kevin, the newly crowned Mr. Bomber, is the son of Jeffrey and Helen Bracht. His escort was his good friend, Lily Martin. Bracht, a "cheerful and energetic student," was "well-deserving of this title," as described by a fellow classmate. Bracht was honored to have received this award. Humbly, he received this honor saying, "I would like to thank my family and friends for all the support that they have given me throughout the years."

Other escorts include: Ally Arnold with Parker Jordan, Morgan Fleming with Isaac Ahler, Hailey Henry with JT Feagans, and Katie Myers with Ben Korniak.

Congratulations to the 2018 RCHS Mr. Bomber, Kevin Bracht!

BOMBER WRESTLING

This year's wrestling team, coached by James Oliver, consists of determined athletes who use every bit of their strength to succeed. The wrestling team started their season with a triumphant victory against Tri-County, beating them 59-6. December 28 and 29, the Bombers finished 4th place at the Broncho Holiday Duals at Lafayette Jefferson High School. They finished the event with a record of 7-3, giving them a 15-7 record on the season. At Hoosier Conference, Eli Hickman and Colin Stanley finished first in their weight class, and Brayden Wright finished second in his. Female wrestler Trixie Maguran-Jacobson competed in regionals and advanced to state. Trixie will compete at state on January 19 in Indianapolis. If you would like to see these wrestlers in action, they will compete in the Super Six tournament here at home Saturday, January 20. Best of luck to the Bomber wrestling team!
