Freshmen Class Sponsors Talent Show

On Friday, March 13, the RCHS Freshmen class hosted a talent show in the auditorium to showcase local RCHS talent and to raise funds for their class. Many students and faculty participated in the event, and students and parents came out to watch the performers. While waiting for final scores from the judges, the Winter Guard and Show Choir performed to keep the crowd entertained.

There were many exciting acts including a duet by Guerby Ruuska and Lauren Powell, a drum solo by Zeke Gastineau, and an original song by Ava Davisson.

Senior Anjel Clemente won the competition though, with his wild, electronic dancing to "I'm Blue."

Boys Basketball Sectionals

This month, the boys basketball team had their sectionals at Delphi. They played a good first game and won by 30. Although they played hard for the second round, they unfortunately lost despite being tied, being up by 15 at one point, and the game going into overtime.

The boys played well all season and new coach, Mark McFarland, had a good first season here at RCHS. He worked hard to improve individual skills and prepared the guys for games.

Many fans came to support and cheer the team on for their sectionals. The team is losing 8 seniors going into next season, but there are many people planning on coming back to play next year. Coach is beginning next-season workouts immediately following Spring Break.

Men's Volleyball

On March 9th, the RCHS Student Council held a Men's Volleyball competition in the Joe Burvan Gymnasium. With all grades participating, everyone was very excited to get their shot to be in the Championship game and hopefully come out with a victory. As each grade went up with one another, slowly but surely teams were falling out of the bracket. Team Deno won its first two games to get their place into the Championship game, while Team Hillan (returning Champions) also won its first two games to be placed in the Championship game once again. The Championship game is based on the best score of three games. As the first game concluded, Team Deno came victorious to put them up one game. Switching sides of the court gave both Team Deno and Team Hillan a different look; as the match started, Team Deno came out with an early lead, but it wasn't long until Team Hillan started to figure some things out and ended up winning the match to put the game into the final third match for the Championship.

Playing only to a score of 15, everyone knew it was going to be a close and fast game. With an exciting ending to the last game, Team Hillan came out on top to win its second consecutive title as the best Men's Volleyball team.

Spring Break

It's that time of the year again, Spring break! Spring break gives students a week off school to enjoy the lovely spring weather. Spring break is what students make of it. Stuck at home? Maybe give your bedroom a makeover, start your own garden, or even give yourself a spa day. Many students are planning on leaving town either with family or friends. Jack Ziese and friends Rylan Arihood, Kole Risner, and Brady White are going to Cancun, Mexico. Mr. Zimmer is heading to Louisiana for his spring break vacation. Hope Manns and her family are driving down to Tennessee, Katie Meyers and her family plan on traveling to Missouri, and several RCHS Students, Staff and parents are heading to Spain for the school trip.

Spotlight on Staff

Chaos: Why did you choose to come to Rensselaer?

Mr. Craig: Mr. Speicher is well known as a much respected superintendent with many years of experience, so I was eager to have the opportunity work with him.

Chaos: What is your favorite school lunch?

Mr. Craig: The before Thanksgiving and Christmas break turkey meal.

Chaos: What did you want to be when you grew up?

Mr. Craig: I'm still not sure. I try to do things that interest me.

Chaos: Who would win in a fight: Barney the dinosaur or Big Bird and why?

Mr. Craig: Barney the dinosaur because he has more growth inside him

Chaos: If you had to be locked in an elevator with anyone from the school system who would it be and why?

Mr. Craig: Mike Feagans because he could entertain and make me forget I'm locked in.

Chaos: Do you prefer sweater vests or blazers?

Mr. Craig: Blazers because my mother made me wear sweater vests all the time when I was younger, and I hated them.

Chaos : If you could go anywhere in the world where would it be? Why?

Mr. Craig: Angor Wat because there is a very different culture there.

Chaos: If you had to rock one hair style would it be the mullet or a perm? Why?

Mr. Craig: Mullet because it looks more natural.
